WINEMAKING & AGEING

Gentle pressing extracts high-quality juice, followed by fermentation in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks, preserving the wine's fresh and fruity character. Regular stirring enhances complexity and mouthfeel. The wine is then carefully blended to achieve a harmonious profile, showcasing vibrant fruit flavors and subtle mineral notes.

KOSHER CERTIFICATION

This wine is certified under the strict guidance of the Badatz and OU and is kosher for Passover.

RELATED COMMENT

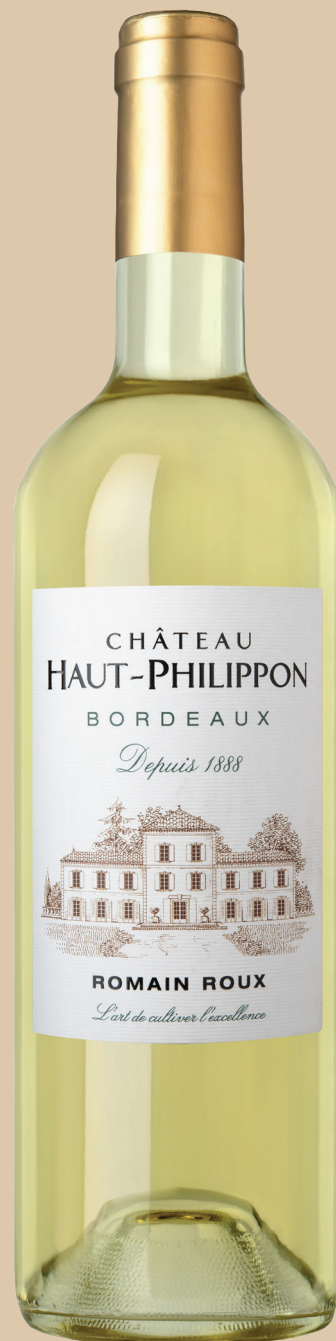

The 2022 Chateau Haut Philippon White is a captivating expression of Bordeaux's terroir. Its pale straw hue invites you to indulge in a vibrant medley of citrus notes, from tangy grapefruit to sun-kissed lemon. Each sip unveils layers of complexity, with hints of freshly cut grass and a nuanced minerality that whispers of the region's limestone soils. The wine's zesty backbone is beautifully balanced by a refreshing acidity, creating a harmonious dance of flavors that lingers on the palate with an invigorating finish. This Bordeaux white wine has received a rating of 91 points from the Vivino Community.
