WINEMAKING & AGEING

Early morning hand-harvesting preserves delicate aromatics and ensures optimal acidity balance. Gentle whole-cluster pressing extracts subtle flavors and pale color. Cool fermentation in stainless steel tanks maintains vibrant fruit character. Brief skin contact imparts a delicate pink hue. Careful temperature control preserves fresh aromatics. The wine undergoes light fining and filtration before bottling to retain its expressive Bordeaux character.

KOSHER CERTIFICATION

This wine is certified under the strict guidance of the Badatz and OU and is kosher for Passover.

RELATED COMMENT

Chateau du Vieux Puit Rose captures the essence of a Bordeaux summer in a glass. Its delicate salmon hue is a prelude to the alluring aromas of fresh strawberries, raspberries, and a whisper of rose petals. On the palate, this rosé unveils a harmonious balance of vibrant red fruit flavors, zesty citrus notes, and a crisp, refreshing acidity. With each sip, the wine's elegance and finesse shine through, delivering a bright and juicy mouthfeel that lingers pleasantly.
