WINEMAKING & AGEING

Meticulous hand sorting precedes fermentation in small oak fermenters. Extended maceration maximizes extraction of flavor compounds and noble tannins. Multiple rackings enhance clarity and stability. This exacting process yields a wine of extraordinary depth and aging potential.

KOSHER CERTIFICATION

This wine is certified under the strict guidance of the Badatz and OU and is kosher for Passover.

RELATED COMMENT

The Le Baron Réserve is a true embodiment of the winery's dedication to crafting exceptional wines. This reserve offering immediately captivates with its deep, inky hue in the glass, hinting at the intensity that awaits. On the nose, aromas of ripe black plum, cassis, and blackberry mingle with alluring notes of clove, vanilla, and a touch of cedar. As the wine envelops the palate, a rich tapestry of flavors unfolds, showcasing a harmonious interplay of dark fruit, baking spices, and a subtle smokiness. The tannins are formidable yet velvety, providing a robust structure that promises outstanding aging potential. With each sip, the wine's depth and complexity reveal themselves, unveiling layers of nuance and finesse.
